Office Action Summary	Application No. 10/763,937	Applicant(s) CHERNOFF ET AL.
	Examiner John C. Hong	Art Unit 3726

-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --
Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☒ Responsive to communication(s) filed on 13 September 2005.
- 2a) ☐ This action is FINAL. 2b) ☒ This action is non-final.
- 3) ☐ Since this application is in condition for allowance except for formal matters, prosecution as to the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

Disposition of Claims

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 12-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Applicant's admitted prior art (AAPA) in view of Pruitt et al. (U.S. Patent 5890285)

AAPA as found on page 1, lines 11-16 of the specification, discloses a method of manufacturing a vehicle body compartment lid.

AAPA fails to teach the step of providing a unitary panel having a first portion formed as a vehicle body compartment lid outer panel and a second portion formed as a vehicle body compartment lid inner panel, and bending the panel to form a crease between the first portion and the second portion.

Pruitt et al. teach the step of providing a unitary panel having a first portion (12) formed as a vehicle body outer panel and a second portion formed as a vehicle body inner panel (Abstract lines 19-23), and bending (18) the panel to form a crease between the first portion and the second portion (Figs 1-3).

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to employ the steps of providing a unitary panel having a first portion formed as a vehicle body outer panel and a second portion formed as a vehicle body inner panel, and bending the panel to form a crease between the first portion and the second portion, as taught by Pruitt et al. on the method of AAPA so as to reduced manufacturing cost and reduced part count.

Regarding claim 13, Pruitt et al. disclose subjecting the metal sheet to fluid pressure to form the unitary panel (column 5, lines 50+).

Regarding claims 14-15, Pruitt et al. disclose a periphery (16) having a first segment (at the trailing edge or rightmost indication of 16 in Figure 3) on the outer portion (12), and a second segment (at the trailing edge or rightmost indication of 16 in Fig. 3) of the periphery on the inner portion (14); wherein bending the panel is such that a portion of the first segment continuously abuts/joins a portion of the second segment (Figures 9-12 illustrate the inner and outer portions are joined at the trailing edge or rightmost position of the panel).

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 16-20 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
